land Died Saturday. Rutland, July 2 .- Attorney Thomas W. Moloney of Columbian avenue, one the foremost members of the state bar, and one of Vermont's prominent Democrats, died at his home Saturday after a long illness with a nervous disorder. About four years ago his health began to break down and he had been gradually failing ever since. While he practice at his office during the last year, he was obliged to give up work entirely a few weeks ago and for several days his condition had been criti-

Mr. Moloney was a prominent figure in the courts of Vermont for a quarter of a century. He was identified with many of the most important cases tried in this state during that period and had represented corporations and in-dividuals in big controversies which reached the highest tribunals in the land. He was considered particularly successful in argument before a jury. As a criminal lawyer he had a wide experience and he did much corporation work. week. Thomas W. Moloney was born in West Rutland January 10, 1862, being a son of the late Michael Moloney. He graduated from Holy Cross college, prices. Worcester, Mass., in 1882 and was admitted to the bar in 1885. He was elected to the Vermont legislature in September, 1890 from the city of Rut-land. In 1890 he was a candidate for Congress from the first Vermont district. He was chairman for the Vermont delegation to the Democratic national convention in 1896, nominee for governor in 1898 and Democratic can-didate for the United States Senate in

The deceased was best known to members of the profession to which he belonged as a member of the law firm Butler & Moloney of Rutland. It was soon after his graduation at Holy Cross, after getting his preliminary ed-ucation in Montreal, that he entered the office of Redington & Butler as a law student. When L. W. Redington severed his connection with the business in 1885 Mr. Moloney became a partner and for 24 years he and Judge F. M. Butler conducted one of the largest law estab-lishments in the state. In 1909 the partnership was dissolved and since that time Mr. Moloney had conducted bus-iness alone. Since his health began to fail John S. Dorsey had looked after some of the practice of the office.

Mr. Moloney was a charter member of Rutland council, Knights of Colum-bus, being the first grand knight. He was formerly affiliated with Rutland lodge, B. P. O. E. Since young manhood he had been affiliated with St. Peters' church and he was an earnest worker
